

We, health. On Ventures GmbH, are a very dynamic, young company that tracks down and markets unknown consumer healthcare ideas with great market potential and promotes innovative healthcare products and solutions. We turn products into strong brands with content, function and high trust. In addition to the shopping experience, our range of products and services for customers also includes comprehensive information on all aspects of health.

For our fast-growing company based in Erlangen, Germany, we are looking for an

Intern (m/f/d) Business Development Japan

Your Profile

- You are a native Japanese speaker or have very good knowledge of Japanese at a native speaker level, and you also speak English or German well.
- You study business administration or are pursuing a comparable business-related degree
- You are very familiar with Japanese culture
- You are interested in consumer healthcare and cross-border-commerce
- You are a self-starter and love to explore unknown territory

Your tasks

- Research on the Japanese consumer healthcare market and e-commerce in Japan
- Research on the regulatory framework for consumer healthcare products
- Creation of pilot websites in Japanese

Our offer

- Very dynamic and at the same time friendly working environment, excellent working atmosphere, close teamwork with the founders
- Very flexible working hours and home office facilities - we are interested in your thoughts and results, not your "face time".
- Attractive internship compensation

You would like to apply? Then please send us your application documents (curriculum vitae and certificates) with a short cover letter by e-mail to recruiting \(at\)health-on. ventures. We are looking forward to hearing from you!

You are interested, but still have questions? Then please call me directly on +499131-6238940 at CET business hours or send me an e-mail to recruiting \(at\)health-on. ventures. I (Daniel) will be happy to answer your questions! Further information about our consumer healthcare products can be found at <https://somnishop.com> (German) or <https://somnishop.net> (English).